Dialogue 2: Fall Risk Patient

(Patient Mrs. Peterson was admitted to the hospital for observation after a fall. To ensure patient safety, RN Lena makes a fall risk assessment and implements fall preventive measures for the patient.)

Lena: _____

Mrs. Peterson: Hi, Lena. (Showing her armband to Lena.)

Lena: _____

Mrs. Peterson: Colleen Peterson, November 18th, 1939.

Lena: _____

Mrs. Peterson: I fell in the bathroom last night.

Lena: _____

Mrs. Peterson: Yes, I remember I was going to the bathroom and slipped on some water that was on the floor. I lost my balance and fell down.

Lena: _____

Mrs. Peterson: The right side. Look at my right leg. What bruises!

Lena: _____

Mrs. Peterson: Yes, Thank you.

Lena: _____

Mrs. Peterson: I use a walker occasionally when I feel weak. I don't use a cane in my house, but I use it when I walk outside.

Lena: _____

Mrs. Peterson: No, I haven't tried yet. I was told I am at high risk for falling, and of course, I just had a fall. A physical therapist will evaluate me before I am allowed to try to walk again.

Lena: _____

Mrs. Peterson: All right.

Lena: _____

Mrs. Peterson: No.

Lena: _____

Mrs. Peterson: Two to three times.

Lena: _____

Mrs. Peterson: Yes, I take it in the morning. It makes me go to the bathroom a lot.

Lena: _____

Mrs. Peterson: Yes, I have heart problem and take Vasotec twice a day.

Lena: _____

Mrs. Peterson: Yes, I will. I don't want to fall again.

Lena: _____

Mrs. Peterson: OK.

Lena: _____

Mrs. Peterson: No.

Lena: _____

Mrs. Peterson: No, not at the moment.

Lena: _____

Mrs. Peterson: Right. Thank you. I will call you if I need you.
